World Book Day

World Book Day is Thursday March 1st. For various reasons, Hollymount will be celebrating on FRIDAY MARCH 2nd. This year we will be inviting all children to come to school ressed as a book character. They can dress as any character they wish - the more imaginative the better! If children do not wish to dress up, then they should wear school uniform. We will also be holding an Inspire Workshop that afternoon from 2pm. Parents will be invited to visit their child's classroom and join in with activities and see what children have been doing this term on the displays. March 2nd is also the last day of our Ambitions Week when children will be learning about possible future careers. We are hosting a job/ education fayre for parents in the school hall from 2.30pm and you are invited to visit after you have spent time with your child.
